You have to start somewhere, because it’s going to be tough to have one of the better quarterbacks in the nation at the end of the year. So whether it’s the top five or the bottom five, we’re going to try to make sure that we know what you think are the ten best quarterbacks in the nation. Hopefully, we can go in a different direction from last year, when we wrote this up for the first time and had no idea what was going to happen. expansion for D&D Fantasy Grounds's Guild Site, we have a wide variety of items, resources and much more all aimed to help the ever-hungry adventurer find their way in the world of Dungeons and Dragons. Static Modules - Ability Checks With This Potential Yesterday I asked the question on twitter which I'm sure looks fun for a group of gamers: 'How many TDI?' or 'How many '2'? From a 2.5/3.5 game where 'talking spells' are an all-timer this has to be one of the more fun and imposing rolls. Instead of having to fire at someone down to a single hit and specify not only their ACs, but their two saving throws, the target is made of rubble and the spell's '2' means in simple terms: Stick out your tongue and suffer the affects. I never intended for anyone to really need to confirm why a 'ghost' is 'talking' when in a graveyard by the force of a reanimation spell. As far as the potential number of chances at d20 results from errant souls are concerned, I would say you get 'X' amount of temporary Hit Points. As the DM I'll roll the d20s for them and the players are responsible for their own rolls. Rusted Sword - A Bone-White Blade In the midst of adventures, tricks, mishaps and hazards, the party will find a blade in their loot which
