Great game by the way. Very relaxing. Doesn't get old. One little annoying part is that there's a bird that drops you food when you die, which means you can't die unless you eat the food. Or are you supposed to find the food first? I like the game, but it's way too hard for people who are not that good at games. There should be some tips when you start the game. Like: you start a new game at the beginning of each level. Your life meter begins in the middle of the screen. (And if the life meter drops too low, you lose a life) And when you die, there should be a different sound than the normal sound. Like a sound you make when you make your first jump. Like a little score or something. It's not difficult, but it should be more engaging. Hello, do you like games? So do we — that's what makes Kongregate the best source of free games online. Israel, Turkey, and Greece convene for the first time On Tuesday evening, three regional states were brought together in Jerusalem for the first time ever. For a day, the long-standing foreign policy challenges of Israel, Turkey, and Greece were put aside in order to focus on the state of Israeli-Turkish relations. The meeting in Israel was organized by Israeli President Reuven Rivlin, the Presidents of Turkey and Greece, Recep Tayyip Erdoğan and Prokopis Pavlopoulos, and Foreign Minister Ahmet Davutoğlu. The purpose of this meeting was to voice support for Israeli-Turkish relations, promote dialogue and cooperation between the two countries, and discuss regional issues, all of which Turkey is keen to do, especially in light of recent violence and political instability across the Mideast. Also, Turkey is increasingly seeking a peace partner in Israel. During the meeting, both President Rivlin and Foreign Minister Ahmet Davutoğlu conveyed the support they expressed to President Erdoğan for Turkey's demand that Hamas be recognized as a terrorist organization.
