What's new:

P.S. - When you feel like you're getting too tired of this game, don't worry! You can change your class and skills freely by acquiring or recruiting other players, but if you change your class to the "Dragon Knight" or the "Knight General", you will lose your previous attributes. For example, if you change your class to "Dragon Knight" when playing as a "Warrior Lord", you will become a dragon flightless in addition to some of the physical limitations of a Dragon Knight. If you change your attributes back and forth, unfortunately, this will not be reflected on the website because we have implemented various business measures in order to maintain high server stability.
