• If you've watched our playthrough of SITV: Journey in the Snow (2017), you'll probably get an idea of what The Corridor is. But here's the thing, it's not a game about SITV: Journey in the Snow. It's a game about a journey through The Corridor. A corridor without a "story," that's what I mean. • "Ok, so what happens exactly?" You may ask. And that's fair enough. There's something you can say about this game, however, and it's this: I am telling you a story about what happens on the first day of a new "game", with nothing more than a corridor and a bunch of things to find. That's it. That's literally it. You May Enjoy: THESE are other games, which we already played, that were great as well! Gothic III: Jours Tenebres (2013) FARMING SIMULATOR 2017 (2015) Harvest Moon: Hometown Legend (1997) SAMURAI WARRIOR'S SONG (2009) God War: Future Past (2017) BUILDING SIM (2016) Pretty much any game that used to be Resident Evil or RE's 2 Star Wars: Battlefront (2017) Reverse/Forward RPG (2003) Resident Evil 5 (2010) Something I genuinely enjoyed playing through: Kirby's Epic Yarn (2003) Out Run: Racing in the Sky (1998) For a bit of background info: Team_Aquamarine is a collection of three excellent game developers: Matt, Luke and myself. Together, we have produced videos that you may enjoy. These include: • SITV: Journey in the Snow (2017) • The Last of Us: Left Behind (2017) • The Last of Us: Le

Lufthansa takes Travelport technology to another level Travelport, the leading provider of travel technology, has acquired German airline passenger sales system provider ANPS. The merger represents a major step forward for ANPS as a subsidiary of Lufthansa Group. It further helps to enhance Travelport's sales technology offering for the travel agent market. Travelport has developed special expertise in the field of demand management and sales acceleration systems for travel agents. With the Acquisition of ANPS, Travelport not only further develops this expertise, but also intends to expand its product portfolio for travel agencies in particular. "We are very pleased to be able to welcome the whole team from ANPS into the Travelport Group. We are convinced that this opportunity will enable us to create a world-class digital platform for our customers," says Carola Liebert, Chief Revenue Officer of the Lufthansa Group. The high level of trust in each other's business systems is one of the strongest assets of Travelport and ANPS in connection. The joint venture offers a unique combination of business, technical and market expertise, which will, in future, enable the two companies to further advance their products and technologies to new customer groups and markets. "The broad market coverage and the synergies regarding service offerings in the areas of sales acceleration, inventory management and technology implementation strengthen the partnership. With this, we want to further position our technology as a competitive advantage in the travel industry," says Jens Westerweel, President and Chief Executive Officer of Travelport. A further key element of the deal is the transfer of, and c9d1549cdd

The Vapormaze is an annual rock music festival, based in Llanelli, Wales. An offshoot of the larger music festival V Festival, the Vapormaze is a smaller, indie music festival with a good reputation for putting on an event that is getting more innovative in its design and approaches with each year. The festival started as a one-day event in 2004, before scaling up to a two-day event in 2006, and again to a three-day event in 2007. History The festival first took place in 2004, taking over a part of Newport Showgrounds and was headlined by The Rumjacks and The Wonder Stuff. This was the first year of the event and as a showcase for local bands. Tickets cost £10. With the money made selling tickets to the event, it was decided that the next year the festival would be run as part of a larger festival. The theme chosen for 2005 was 'Music As It Should Be', with performers like Towa Carson and Editors featured. The event was a great success with the locals of Llanelli becoming regular visitors. In 2006 the Vapormaze was upgraded to a two-day festival, with a two-stage set-up in the Hall lawns behind the neighbouring The Bridge music venue. The buzz about the event was enormous and it was clear that the locals of Llanelli felt the event attracted a new and much more diverse audience. Notable acts to play in the 2006 event included The National and the solo act Stealing Dels. In 2007 the increase to a two-day event was the news headline, with an upgraded bill with headline acts Scouting For Girls, Travis, The Holloways, Joss Stone and The Maccabees. Also on the bill were a collaborative stage, again with other local bands and The Cube, with two nights of music. This was a huge success for the organisers, with the organisers calling it a "real breakthrough" and this was reflected in the increase in sales of tickets in advance. Many of the acts came back for the 2008 festival, including the Libertines and Editors, and once again for 2009. In 2009 the organisers started the process to change the name of the event. Explai
