For most of the latter you'll get dubious stories about how they invested in bitcoins because there are too many of them and how it's too speculative so they couldn't wait and see what happened with them. But while this explanation is suspiciously similar to the reason stocks go up or down, it's not the full picture. This is one reason why Litecoin is a worthy investment. It's actually a cryptocurrency based on proof-of-work and a fork of Bitcoin. It is also more similar to Bitcoin than any other altcoin, as it has the exact same codebase and the same number of developers, but it also has its own unique features that help it stand out from the crowd. As you can see in the chart above, and as can be seen in the news below, Litecoin's market value has surpassed that of Bitcoin in recent months. This is undoubtedly because it's one of the most popular cryptocurrencies and the most legitimate one as it was developed with a goal of decentralization, privacy, and security in mind. The coin is actually designed to have a fixed number of coins, unlike Bitcoin's inflationary pot. That means that it can be mined in a sustainable way - but e79caf774b
