Ask HN: How do you automate your email? - fx3_ 'I'm looking for a tool that can: - Alert me of email that haven't been read - Reply to the message if a reply is needed - Let me stay in context (e.g.: call the manager if I'm about to get fired) - Let me ignore messages if it's not relevant ===== froglet I'm using Mail.app and I have something in its Advanced section called "Guides". You can specify what you'd like it to do when the message comes in, depending on its sender. ~~~ fx3_ Thanks. Do you have an example of how to do that? ----- jsidhi Do not let anyone on the team use our company email addresses for anything other than team communication. We ended up getting a lot of junk mails (automated reminders, etc). We now use our own email address for all our official communications. ~~~ fx3_ That's a good solution. ----- aarongray Do you have any more details? What are you sending out, what are the senders, etc? ~~~ fx3_ I'm sending emails to a team of ~20 people, the emails have generic titles to collectively acknowledge to a new project, none of the emails contain any names or companies
