What's New In?

NEW BRUNSWICK - Since 2002, Rutgers football has earned 58 percent of its wins away from Piscataway. That success is strong, but the Scarlet Knights will have to improve if they want to continue their winning ways on the road for much longer. As detailed in our new New Brunswick Today Travel Guide on the subject of Rutgers football road games, a big part of being successful on the road requires establishing an early lead. For that to happen, Rutgers has to be able to win games like Saturday's and last season's games against Miami. But that is easier said than done. Since 2002, Rutgers is 0-5 in road games against Miami, including a 3-0 record in the last five. The last time Rutgers finished undefeated on the road against Florida was in 1997, when the Scarlet Knights won seven straight away games against Miami. It was a bad year for Rutgers on the road, but not this bad. The last time Rutgers won a road game against Florida was Oct. 23, 2006, when the Scarlet Knights defeated Florida 24-23 at Sun Life Stadium in Miami. This year's game between Rutgers and Miami is on Saturday at 3:30 p.m. at MetLife Stadium. Here is a look back at Rutgers' road successes and recent road failures against Miami: The Men of Good Character The Scarlet Knights finished 3-3 in road games against Miami in 2002. Sophomore tight end Junior Stubbs caught his first pass as a college player in that game against the Hurricanes. In the third quarter, Rutgers trailed 14-0, but things turned around for the Scarlet Knights. After a 12-play, 59-yard drive by Rutgers, Kyle Brady passed to Marlin Jackson for a 1-yard touchdown to cut the Hurricanes' lead to 14-7. Then the Scarlet Knights took over again and scored three straight times, as Zach Frazer threw a 43-yard pass to Tim Major, Brady threw a 20-yard pass to Minor and Zeke Brady scored on a 3-yard run. However, the Scarlet Knights never led during the game and finished with a 31-28 loss. The Quick Backs Rutgers scored 31 unanswered points in the second half against Miami in 2002. Cornerback Ben Davis intercepted a David Boston pass on the first play of the half, and then Tyrone Hopkins returned it 47 yards for a touchdown. Two plays after Hopkins
